

Campbell Place, N.E.

146 Campbell N.E. This charming, shingle-style house was built around 1893 by Charles G. Inslee when this small subdivision was new. Mr. Inslee was a bookkeeper at the Berkey & Gay Furniture Co. Elsie Inslee was a stenographer at the Grand Rapids Board of Trade. They moved out around 1908, and a traveling agent by the name of Daniel Grange lived here for several years. He was succeeded by a physician, George Renwick, from 1914 to the early 1930's; and then the Adrianse family for more than ten years. Raymond and Ann Kennedy and their daughter, Erica, have lived here since their relocation from Holland in 1990.
