1001 East Beltline N.E. Cornerstone College, formerly known as the Grand Rapids Baptist College and Seminary, began as an evening Bible institute in the educational wing of Wealthy Street Baptist Church in January, 1941. In 1959 it became a Bible college, offering religious and musical instruction. The campus was moved in 1964 to its site on 132 acres on the East Beitline near Leonard Street. In 1972 the college became approved to offer degrees in the arts and sciences. In 1993, about 750 students were enrolled in the college and 140 in the seminary.
